

Dover Nov. 25. 1844.

Dear Mrs Chapman.

In reply to your very kind note, let me say, that I happened to come across the other day a little piece of German poetry, which rather pleased me; and it occurred to me that it might possibly, if translated, do tolerably well for the Liberty Bell.

- You will readily see that the only merit of the translation (apart from its being quite literal) lies in its sentiment. If it does not answer your purpose, pray do not have the slightest hesitation in rejecting it -

With sincere respect very truly

Yours J. Parkman.

Mrs Parkman desires
affectionate remembrance -

1844

Ms. A. 9.2.20.104A